ORDER AMENDING THE INDICTMENT

Before the Court is the Unopposed Motion to Amend Indictment [Doc. No. 50]. The government seeks to correct a clerical error in the Indictment that transposes the initials of the alleged victims of the offenses in Counts 1 and 3. The government represents that Defendants do not object to amending the Indictment to correct the victims' initials.

Upon consideration, the Court finds the requested change is a matter of form that does not implicate the Presentment Clause of the Fifth Amendment. See United States v. Stegman, 873 F.3d 1215, 1223 (10th Cir. 2017). The change constitutes a ministerial correction that "leaves the substance of the charges unaffected, . . . does not usurp the prerogative of the grand jury," and does not prejudice Defendants. See id.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the government's Unopposed Motion to Amend Indictment [Doc. No. 50] is GRANTED. The Indictment [Doc. No. 20] is hereby amended so that Count 1 identifies the victim of the charged offense by the initials D.K. and Count 3 identifies the victim of the charged offense by the initials J.G.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 14th day of September, 2023.

TIMOTHY D. DeGIUSTI
Chief United States District Judge
